THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party,
But Established for the Benefit of All.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 1893.

Texas wants to be divided into two States. The ambition to have the biggest of everything—from pumpkins to empire—evidently does not dwell in the breasts of Texans.

An eclipse has followed the occultation of the morning and evening stars with the spoils brigade. There being no light in any of them, however, it is impossible to judge which of the bodies is overshadowed. The earth is certainly not in it, although they all want it.

Cramps the shipbuilders of Philadelphia may not want the earth, but they weep because they cannot get as much of it as is covered with water. Their jealousy of San Francisco shipbuilders regarding naval contracts is about as small as anything we can show even in Honolulu.

Because the BULLETIN counseled this country's looking out for her own peculiar interests in the event of annexation the Star charges us with making the most insidious attack yet made on annexation. If the subserving of the clearest Hawaiian interests is incompatible with annexation, then what is there in annexation for Hawaiian interests?

Evidently the theft of the capital by a sudden conspiracy in the California Legislature is not going to be allowed with general complacency. A suit has been begun in the courts to stop the transfer of the booty to San Jose. Getting away with a hot stove will henceforth be a puerile simile, since the stealing of nations and capitals has again come into fashion.

So much obstruction is meeting the Geary registration act, for the enhancement of Chinese exclusion in the United States, that it is most doubtful if the law will not have to be dropped as a dead letter. The Chinese simply will not register and they are encouraged by a strong American party in the East. By agreement of both sides it is hoped to have an early decision by the federal Supreme Court on a test case as to the constitutionality of the measure.

It seems as if the Panama Canal project has as many lives as a cat. Right in the midst of investigations into colossal and seething corruption created by the late company, the titled promoter of a new company appears in the midst of the Nicaragua Canal camp in America with fresh proposals for completing the Panama ditch. If Count Keratry tells the whole truth Panama may still be the trump card. Captain Merry of San Francisco is still to be heard from, however.

California machine politicians of the Democratic party would have the world believe that the Golden State has reason to repent that it went for Cleveland in November. The solid democracy probably, however, takes little stock in the distress of the bosses. It is doubtless satisfied in the expectation that Cleveland will give the nation an honest and straightforward administration in the interest of the whole people. There are people outside of California who are mad at Cleveland, without having sense enough to see how ridiculous they look gnawing at a file.

THAT DISMISSAL.

Since the 17th of January the cry of the Advertiser has been "bread or blood" for the striplings who threw all their mighty power into the muscles of their forearms and grasped a gun in defense of themselves. The demand for offices has been continued from day to day and with each successive call the voice of Patriot McCallender could be heard above the din. The recent dismissal from the Post Office is an evidence of the Mac's aggressiveness during the present political strife, nor is it the result of any recent utterances by the late occupant of the position. The remarks by Mr. Thrum which led to his ultimate dismissal were made but a few days after the present Government assumed control. So incensed was the Mac because a Hawaiian boy had told him in response to his impertinent remarks, "the Hawaiian flag is good enough for me," that he must needs express his indignation to every one he met for the next twenty-four hours. When young Thrum made the remark quoted a desire to have his official head was kindled in the breast of the Mac. For fear his devotion to the Government would injure him in the well-boring trade the Mac declined to accept the tax-assessorship and now, probably for the same reason, he denies that he is responsible for Thrum's dismissal. The public will decide who is to be believed. What must the Mac's feelings be when he reads the editorial in this morning's Advertiser on this subject. When the organ of the spoils system condemns the action of the party it represents, we should prepare for the millennium—the harbinger is here. But what becomes of the boasts that the Government is strong enough for a four years' tenure without annexation, in view of the fact that it allows the efficiency of the public service to be imperilled at the dictation of a parcel of sneaking adventurers?

COURT CHRONICLE.

Officers Fail to Find Maria Ramos for Service of Writ.

Maria J. Ramos did not appear before Judge Cooper this morning, to show cause as ordered why she should not be adjudged in contempt. The return of the police officer on the writ was that she could not be found. Therefore the time for answering was extended till to-morrow at 10:30. She is due to answer the writ of habeas corpus for the disputed child, as previously reported, at 10 o'clock.

W. A. Kinney has filed a motion in the matter of the estate of Keoni Kihuna, deceased testate, for the payment to the administratrix and one of the devisees, Angelina Kihuna, of money in court, so that she may satisfy a number of pressing claims on the estate. Hearing on the motion has been set by Judge Whiting for May 2.

Not Ruined.

Some months ago some smart aleck said he would ruin me at once. That same smart aleck is full of prunes. Come around any time of the day or till 12 o'clock at night, and as sure as you are alive you will see the people making shirts all the time. I have more shirts to make than I have people to make them. If you are in doubt of this call and see. I have now over 500 orders for all kinds of shirts, and if there are any other would-be shirt-makers that can show up for this just let them do so. The public must understand that I am not afraid of tramps or collectors. I am in for the business and I am not afraid to work, and I work like a trooper, and I am as poor as a mouse. Still I am not afraid of any collector, or would-be shirt-makers. I will pay my hotel bill at Palaha next time the Hall makes a trip.

DETECTIVE WAGNER.

Brings Along a Chinese Boy Tied by the Wrist.

About 12:20 o'clock this afternoon Detective Wagner, leading a young Chinese boy with a whip tied on his wrist, and followed by nearly the whole Chinese school, was seen heading for the Police Station. On arrival the detective was asked by Clerk Zablan what was the matter with the boy. "Oh, he vos a thief," replied Wagner. "He climb the mango trees at my house and steal the mangoes."

The matter was investigated and the boy was let go. The young chap, with some of his school-mates, had gone at recess into the Klemme residence, Fort street, where Wagner lives, and stolen some mangoes.

Scorn for a Tale-bearer.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Another head lopped off by the Government in the person of Mr. Ernest Thrum for having the courage of his convictions. It appears that Mr. Thrum in saying, "Hawaiian postage stamps are good enough for me," committed a sin past redemption and too much for some narrow souls to digest. All honor to the young man for having the courage to stand up for his honest principles and maintain them. Mr. Thrum for his manly action will receive his just reward all in good time, while the miserable tale-bearer will receive the scorn he deserves from all just men. JUSTICE.

"Brace Up"

Is a tantalizing admonition to those who at this season feel all tired out, weak, without appetite and discouraged. But the way in which Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the tired frame and gives a good appetite, is really wonderful. So we say, "Take Hood's and it will brace you up."

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills.

PUSS IN A MESS.

Accidents Will Happen in the Best Regulated Households.

A laughable incident happened in a downtown household this morning. An infant of three summers found a kitten in the back yard, which she gleefully adopted as her property. To secure the pet stock from running away she shut it up in a meat safe, on a shelf containing a large basin of mango sauce. Pussy jumped on a tin cover over the sauce, which tilted and landed Pussy in the luscious mass. Its pitiful mew as it wallowed in jelly attracted attention and relief. This was not all. The kitten all dripping with the sauce was turned loose on the back steps, where it left a deposit of the lubricating stuff. Then comes along the bread man and astonishes the housewife by an involuntary acrobatic performance on the steps. He was perfectly sober but somehow missed his foothold. Mango is the great greaser in Honolulu, as the green apple is elsewhere.

Saturday, April 22, 1893.

We had quite made up our minds to ignore the question of the day in this column for various reasons, but, as the space in the Honolulu dailies is occupied largely by the editors in moulding public opinion on the subject of politics and religion it is quite probable the readers of this paper would ignore our advertisement if we were to let pass the opportunity to "speak a piece."

We do not intend to say that we know how the thing will be decided, we violate no confidence when we declare publicly through this column that we do not. We are not alone in this and we have no hesitation, no compunctions of conscience in telling you that we burned many gallons of midnight oil before we reached this conclusion. We doubt if Mr. Cleveland knows; we can imagine we see him sitting in his "nightie" after every one else in the family has retired, reading the various memorials and petitions he has received from Honolulu, we can see his face brighten as he pores over the illuminated reasons why the Islands should be annexed and then spread out over his knees the memorial from the patriots who request for as many reasons that the country be not toyed with. We can, in our mind's eye, see the flickering hope die out after he has waded through the various documents at hand and hear him ask "Where am I at?" and the echoes of every corner of the room allotted to the "first gentleman of the land" as a place of repose will take up the question and refer it to the judiciary committee, and there the memorials and petitions will curl up and die like the minority reports in the last Legislature. Mr. Blount will fix the thing in his own quiet way, just now he's the people.

Those who do not dabble in paint are not aware that there has been a shortage of that article in this market for the past few weeks. The painter who has held back his work on account of not being able to secure a supply, may get all he wants from us by telephoning. By the "Australia" we received enough Pioneer White Lead to cover every building in Honolulu, and make them vie with the exhibition buildings in Chicago in whiteness. We're bound to have a boom here as a result of the advertising the country has had, and the property owner who wants to sell or get increased rentals cannot do better than get their houses ready before the boom begins. When the carpenters and painters are engaged the prices will go up. Supply and demand governs the wages of the painter as in the case of every other branch of labor. Cut off the supply and let the demand grow and where are you?

The warm weather approaches and the demand for Hose increases. We are prepared to fill all orders for sizes from half inch up to three inches with the best brands of hose ever imported here. Wire-bound Hose in the usual sizes.
